Gibtelecom

Sofi- Gibtelecom's fully licensed digital entertainment service

Sofi provides you with on demand channels and apps including movie apps that cater for all the family, such as Rakuten and Amazon Prime. There are also a range of unique features such as catch up on popular channels and creating your own personal TV guide to ensure that you have easy access to the best on-demand entertainment.

In addition, the Sofi mobile app gives you access to over 30 live TV channels, including catch-up on eligible programming and has interactive features including smart remote functionality and 'flick and fetch' so you can continue watching programmes you were watching on the TV on your mobile device and vice versa – all of these features allow you to enjoy your entertainment experience to the fullest!

The service is exclusively available to Gibtelecom broadband customers from as little as £10 per month. It is also included for free as part of the Gibtelecom Monster Bundle which also gives you 1000 free minutes (on-net), 1000 free SMS and 10GB of data on your mobile plan – all for only £55 per month.

There are also reduced rates for customers over 60 (holding a valid Pensioner's ID) who can get a Monster Bundle for just £30 per month with Sofi included.

Sofi also offers great customer support 24 hours a day, every day of the year.

Signing up is easy, simply register online at www.sofi.gi or pop in to our Customer Services Centre at 15/21 John Mackintosh Square.

Gibtelecom powering the Gibraltar Chess Festival

Gibtelecom will once again be supporting the 2019 Gibraltar International Chess Festival

This year's festival will be taking place at the Caleta Hotel between Tuesday 22 January and Wednesday 30 January and will see the participation of over 300 players from around the globe.

The Gibraltar International Chess Festival has become a hugely successful tournament and Gibtelecom has no doubt been key to its development as a previous lead sponsor and through continued sponsorship. Gibtelecom's contribution to the technology side of the event has helped the tournament reach new heights, with a keen global online audience able to view live commentary and interact with Chess Grandmasters whilst the event is in progress.

The festival's website www.gibchess.com provides millions of viewers with multimedia-rich content including live video streams and real-time feedback.

Supporting the community

Gibtelecom once again supported various local charities throughout December

Gibtelecom contributed over £1000 to the GBC Open Day fund through various initiatives, such as donating the proceeds from an employee raffle as well as having Christmas characters handing out Gibtelecom cupcakes and chocolates around town on GBC Open Day in return for a donation to the fund.

Gibtelecom also raised money for Save the Children Gibraltar with employees making donations to the charity and wearing Christmas jumpers to show their support.

Gibtelecom is also proud to support Clubhouse Gibraltar through a donation of £1000. The charity provides support for individuals with mental health issues in the community.
